

The Fruit Breeders and Testers of the United States and Canada

(Supplement to list in Vol. 9 No. 1)

As a result of the interest and efforts of several people closely associated with the activities of the American Pomological Society, it has been possible to add the names listed below to original list of fruit breeders and testers that appeared in Vol. 9, No. 1 of the FRUIT VARIETIES and HORTICULTURAL DIGEST. It is hoped that our readers will call our attention to omissions that may still exist so that our list made be made even more complete and more useful.
